

MEETING OF LIKE MINDS

When: Tuesday February 20th, 2018
7pm – 9 pm

Where: Center for Urban Horticulture,
NHS Hall
3501 NE 41st St., Seattle 98105

EagleSong, an herbalist, gardener, teacher, and life-long learner, will speak on Hedges & Edges: Living Fences that Work

"Good fences do good neighbors make!" Robert Frost knew the necessity and value of a good fence. A living fence that works bringing neighbors together, producing food and habitat for human and animal alike, adds wealth and beauty to any neighborhood. In this evening talk, you will discover which plants make successful hedges, different kinds of hedges, the value and ROI of each one, and how to maintain a hedge for a long, vital working life at minimal expense.

Join us for a pleasant evening of good food, camaraderie, a fun auction, and EagleSong, too. The food is potluck, so bring a delish dish to share! Or if you don't bring anything, leave a donation in the hat on the food table
